Uzbekistan: TOP 200

Description: While working on Uzbekistan: Top-200, the authors did everything they could to make their report useful and indispensable for any business person interested in Uzbekistan. They are greatly satisfied with their work and their clients will be feeling the same! Why are they so certain? Why do they think that you will be excited reading it? In the tough conditions of the Uzbek economy, which is famous for its low transparency, they managed to collect immense volume of truly unique information about Uzbek companies.

Top 200 companies are ranked according to their sales volume in 2009. Moreover, the report contains a lot of other useful information: list of largest companies in terms of their stock market capitalization; list of the most profitable companies; list of companies, which grew fastest in terms of their revenue in 2009; list of companies with the largest number of employees, and comprehensive companies' profiles. To sum up, their report has all necessary information to ensure success of your business. Companies in this report are ranked irrespective of industries in which they operate. As a result, the rating includes companies representing different key industries of Uzbek economy. The company position in the rating was defined by the sales revenue in 2009. According to the companies' operational profiles the following indicators were taken into consideration:

- Net revenue (sales revenue minus VAT, excises and other analogous mandatory payments) for companies operating in sphere of industry, agriculture, telecommunications, transportation, trade, utilities, construction and other;

- Sum of interest income, commission income and net non-interest income generated by securities and foreign currency operations for banks. The source of information is banks accounting statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS);

- Sum of insurance premiums and net investment income minus reinsurance premiums (IFRS) or insurance services net revenue (field #60 of Form #2 of the National Accounting Standards).
