Summary: Helsingborg (City of)

Description: Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.

Abstract
The ratings on the Swedish City of Helsingborg reflect its strong macroeconomic fundamentals and dynamic local economy. The stable and supportive system for local and regional governments (LRGs) in the Kingdom of Sweden (AAA/Stable/A-1+) is a positive rating factor. Moreover, Helsingborg displays strong budgetary performance, low indebtedness, and high budgetary flexibility. Slightly offsetting these strengths are uncertainties about the scope of recovery of the LRG sector's future tax revenues and a slightly higher unemployment rate than the national average. Close integration within the -resund region boosts Helsingborg's local economy, which has strong macroeconomic fundamentals. Moreover, the city has strong growth prospects with its rapidly increasing population (1.2% annual growth in 2010) and expanding economy. However, the unemployment rate was 8.4%...
