SERVICES WORKING TOGETHER. Edition No. 1

Description: This research, though small, provide awareness and highlight the views, opinions and feelings of staff working in palliative care and learning disability services. By using focus groups and individual interviews they were able to share their experiences and discuss ways in which both services can work together to improve palliative care for people with learning disabilities. With specialist knowledge, skills and experiences, staff working in both services can provide robust and collaborative working to enhance good quality service for people with learning disabilities who need palliative care.
