Privatisation and its socio economic impact. Edition No. 1

Description: Privatization is a Polemic Subject and have been discussed around the World. Like many other countries in the Developing countries World Bank and IMF policies have serve to advisethem and its Holy book or guide. South Africa is not an Exception. this study seeks to comprehend the Impact of such policies for the citizens at large. the study seeks to establish the winners and losers. With the Current Financial and economic crises the proponents of Privatisation lost the plot. Government have been sited as westing resources, non efficient and irresponsible However this crises proved a contrary thefore opening a new debate on economic policies. The book review its origins and the correlation or triangulation between privatisation, Globalization and corruption.
