Tips for Writing An Acceptable Dissertation. Edition No. 1

Description: The aim of this book is to serve as a quick guide for writing a research thesis or dissertation. This guide will provide concerned students with handy tips on finding a reasonable topic, preparing a research plan, reviewing literature and presenting, analyzing and interpreting their findings. Students may find this booklet useful in dealing with some statistical (taboo) issues which are meant to be easy and comprehended by everyone. It is also intended that this booklet will help research writers with documentation of data extracted from the modern electronic devices and the Internet. The guide is far from being comprehensive nor perfect in the field of research methodology; however, it is intended to help graduate students take their first steps in this field.
