Race to Simplicity. Edition No. 1

Description: Simplify Your Business!

We all want simpler lives but, the speed of society is faster than ever. You are racing just to keep up, much less invest time to make your business simpler to run.

Fortunately, there are "elements of simplicity." These elements in the areas of customers, employees, and strategy can make your business easier to control. This gives you free time to devote to other important areas of your life.

Learn How To:
- Help employees manage themselves so that you don't have to
- Discover the one strategy you should follow to treat a business failure
- Select Your Success - Discover the only goal in dealing with customers
- Find the measurement that tells you what is working and what is not!
- Find the few areas that generate the lion-share of results and benefits
- Combat complexity by using visual elements for customers and teams
