The ‘AA-’ rating assigned to the city of Carbondale, Ill.’s series 2010A-C general obligation (GO) bonds reflects Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services’ view of the city’s: Stable service-based economy anchored by Southern Illinois University; Below-average unemployment rate; Positive financial operations with very strong reserves; and Moderate debt burden. In our view, offsetting factors are the city’s low income levels, caused by the large number of students living in the city. The series 2010A-C bonds are general obligations of the city payable from unlimited ad valorem taxes. The city tells us that it intends to pay debt service on the bonds from capital improvement sales tax revenues, and that it will abate the annual debt service extension according to sales tax...
