Highlights

- The fixed-line telecommunications market is valued as the revenues obtained by operators for voice telephony and other non-voice information transmission using fixed lines (wirelines), rather than wireless systems. Only revenues from end-users are included, with revenues from other operators, as in wholesale transactions, excluded. Revenues from internet services and value-added services are included. Market volumes represent the number of fixed-line telephones. All currency conversions were carried out at constant 2011 average annual exchange rates.

- The Dutch fixed line telecoms market had total revenues of $4.7 billion in 2011, representing a compound annual rate of change (CARC) of -7% between 2007 and 2011.

- Market consumption volumes decreased with a CARC of -1.5% between 2007 and 2011, to reach a total of 7 million fixed line telephones in 2011.

- The performance of the market is forecast to follow the similar pattern with an anticipated CARC of -7% for the five-year period 2011 - 2016, which is expected to drive the market to a value of $3.3 billion by the end of 2016.
