Summary: Knoxville, TN; Utility, Water/Sewer Feb 01

Description: Abstract
The rating on Knoxville, Tenn.'s wastewater system revenue refunding bonds, issued for Knoxville Utility Board, reflects the security provided by a senior lien on the net revenues of the wastewater system. The rating also reflects: An increasingly diversified and stable economy, A strong track record of financial and system management since the takeover of the system in 1987, Strong liquidity and improved debt service coverage supported by moderate rate increases, and A manageable capital plan largely funded primarily from operations. Below-average wealth levels, which may ultimately limit the system's revenue-raising ability, mitigate the strengths. The Knoxville Utility Board serves 59,659 mostly residential sewer customers in Knoxville and the surrounding counties. Customer growth has been steady with incremental customer and sales...
