Life Insurance International

Description: For over 15 years, Life Insurance International covers the latest products and services within the Life Insurance sector.

It looks at the impact that an ageing population and changing regulatory landscape is having on the distribution and marketing strategies employed by the key players.

This includes coverage of new products and services, mergers, acquisitions, outsourcing and strategic alliances.

Every issue covers the critical issues from around the world, including emerging markets, demographic and consumer trends, sales and distribution developments, demutualization, regulatory changes, bancassurance and more.
