Summary: Carroll Cnty, MD; Tax Secured, General Obligation Apr 03

Description:

Abstract

The ‘AA’ rating on Carroll County, Md.’s GO consolidated public improvement refunding bonds series 2003 reflects: A diversifying local economy with participation in the Baltimore MSA, Sound financial operations characterized by operating surpluses and strong fund balances, Strong management practices with long-range planning that guides county growth and development, and A moderate debt burden. Carroll County (population 159,442) is in north-central Maryland, bordering Baltimore and Howard counties. The county’s strong land-use planning strategy has successfully defined the economic profile of the county. Unlike many of its neighboring counties, Carroll County has implemented a growth strategy that limits development to targeted areas, based on available infrastructure, and seeks to preserve agricultural space. As of fiscal 2003, the county has protected nearly...
