Summary: Hawaii; General Obligation Apr 08

Description: Abstract
Standard & Poor's Ratings Services assigned its 'AA' rating to Hawaii's series 2008 DK, DL, and DM general obligation (GO) bonds and affirmed its 'AA' rating on the state's outstanding GO debt, reflecting: A growing and diversifying economy, which continues to rely on tourism and land development; Average wealth and income indicators, mitigated by the state's sustained, though likely mature, expansionary phase; Significantly improved financial performance and reserves, bolstered by strong recent revenue trends; and Rapid amortization of existing debt with manageable additional debt plans. Tempering these strengths are the state's high debt burden and the low-funded status of its retirement system. Constitutional requirements also limit the state's ability to maintain high fund balance reserves, although an emergency budget reserve...
