Summary: CAP S.A. Apr 13

Description: Abstract
Cost competitive iron ore operation Long life of iron reserves (around 59 years at current production levels) Dominant position in Chile's flat and long steel market, although currently unprofitable Exposure to volatile iron prices Asset concentration Strong liquidity Low debt Ample operating cash generation ability Bold investment program The stable outlook reflects our expectation that CAP's financial performance will remain balanced through the investment phase and that its "strong" liquidity provides a great deal of flexibility to buffer cash-flow volatility. We assess the likelihood for a downgrade as rather low, due to CAP's robust cash reserves and low financial leverage. A potential upside of the ratings is somewhat unlikely at the moment as we believe CAP's asset concentration in a...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
