Summary: Cameron International Corp. Apr 13

Description:

Abstract
Solid competitive position as one of the leading manufacturer and supplier of pressure control equipment and services to the oil and gas industry. Significant geographic diversification, with 45% of revenues derived outside of North America. Meaningful base of aftermarket sales, which reduces the company's exposure to the cyclicality and competitiveness of its end markets. Somewhat lower profitability than oilfield services peers due to its subsea operations. Intermediate debt ratios and ability to generate healthy free cash flow through the cycle. Strong liquidity, including a very large cash position, a largely undrawn credit facility and very manageable near-term debt maturities. The stable outlook on Cameron International Corp. reflects Standard & Poor's Ratings Services view of the company's solid operating performance due...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
