Banco Santander-Chile S.A. May 04

Description:
Abstract
Extremely strong franchise and competitive position in the Chilean financial system Advantageous economies of scale achieved after successful completion of merger Highly profitable operation Ownership by a committed parent Operating in a low-risk environment Asset quality, though once again improving, deteriorated following the merger Margins under pressure as a result of the highly competitive environment and low interest rates The ratings on Banco Santander-Chile S.A. reflect the bank's leading position in the competitive Chilean market, its well-diversified business line, and its good financial profile. The ratings also take into account the bank's ownership and full control by Banco Santander Central Hispano (SCH), and its operating in a banking system that Standard & Poor's Ratings Services considers to have the lowest...
