Summary: KT Corp. Sep 10

Description:

Abstract
The rating on Korea-based KT Corp. (KT; A-/Positive/--) reflects the company’s dominant position in the Korean telecommunications market, strong operating cash flow generation, and modest financial risk profile. At the same time, the rating takes into account the company’s declining revenue from fixed-line telephony services and the saturated and very competitive Korean telecommunications market. KT, which was formerly government-owned, is the incumbent fixed-line operator in Korea, with an 88.3% share of the telephony services market as of May 2010. Leveraging its dominant market position in Korea’s telecommunications industry, and backed by its good brand image and superior network coverage, the company has achieved a leading position in the broadband sector with a 42.9% market share. It is also the second-largest...
