Summary: Korea National Oil Corp. May 13

Description:
Abstract
Sole oil policy arm of government Increasing exposure to cyclical and volatile oil and gas E&P business Weak, albeit improving, competitive position in oil and gas E&P business Heavy capital spending for overseas E&P investment Ongoing government financial support The stable outlook on the ratings on KNOC reflects the outlook on Korea because we equalize the ratings on both owing to our expectation that there is an almost certain likelihood of the government providing KNOC with extraordinary support in the event it were to suffer financial distress. Equalization of the ratings would lead us to lower our ratings on KNOC if we were to lower our sovereign ratings on Korea. Also, a weakening of KNOC's role as a policy arm...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
