Summary: Kuwait (State of) Jun 13

Description: Abstract
The ratings on Kuwait are supported by the sovereign's high levels of wealth and very strong external and fiscal balance sheet positions, accumulated as a result of the state's rich resource endowment and what we consider to be prudent wealth management. The ratings are constrained by a challenging political environment, the lack of transparency regarding decision-making and government assets, and limited monetary policy flexibility. As a percentage of GDP, the general government budget has been in double-digit surplus for more than a decade. We estimate that the government will have a surplus of about 38% of GDP in budget year 2012/2013 (ending March 31), which includes our estimate of government investment income. Our base case is that oil prices will...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor’s issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
