British Airways PLC Dec 10

Description:
Very strong position at London Heathrow Airport and extensive international route network (over 300 destinations worldwide). Good track record of achieving cost savings and improving operational efficiency. Strong liquidity base. Participation in cyclical, price-competitive, and capital-intensive airline industry. Sensitive to rising fuel costs. Some concentration of profit at the group’s transatlantic network and premium market. The ratings on BA are constrained by our view of the cyclicity of the airline industry, volatile fuel costs, and profit concentration in BA’s transatlantic network and premium market. On Sept. 30, 2010, BA had £3.9 billion of total on-balance-sheet debt. The ratings are supported by our view of BA's strong competitive position as the main airline at London Heathrow Airport, extensive route network, long-term...
