Summary: Camden Central School District, New York; School State Program
Jul 13

Description:
Standard & Poor's Ratings Services affirmed its 'A+' underlying rating (SPUR) and school issuer credit rating (ICR) on Camden Central School District, N.Y.'s general obligation (GO) bonds. The outlook is stable. The rating reflects our view of the district's: Good income and adequate property wealth; Very strong reserves coupled with good financial management practices; and Low overall debt burden net of building aid reimbursements. The above strengths, in our opinion, are offset by a limited local economy. The full faith and credit of the school district secures the bonds. Additional security is provided by the New York State's Intercept Program. Camden Central School District serves an estimated population of 13,350 in Oneida County and is located 20 miles to the...
