ACE Insurance Ltd. (New Zealand) Oct 13

Description: Satisfactory business risk profile based on intermediate industry risks, positive operating performance, and the neutral impact of other sub-factors for competitive position. Intermediate industry and low country risk because it operates in the New Zealand non-life insurance market. Modest market position as it ranks as the eighth largest non-life insurer in New Zealand based on gross written premiums. A very strong reputation among its client base but operates in a very well-serviced and intensely competitive market. Relies on brokers as its primary distribution channel, and a substantial portion business is written through large broker groups. Moderately strong capital and earnings position. Insurer held excess capital at the 'AAA' category, and we forecast this level of redundancy to be maintained in...
