Summary: Cameron School District, Wisconsin; General Obligation May 08

Description:
Abstract
The upgrade on Cameron School District, Mo.'s bonds to 'A+' from 'BBB+' reflects the continued stability of the district's underlying economic base and solid financial performance, which Standard & Poor's Ratings Services expects to continue. Other credit characteristics include: Stable enrollment, A low debt burden, and Quick retirement of debt with no additional debt needs. Cameron School District is located in Barron County and serves a total population of approximately 4,500. Enrollment is reported at 818 students, but does not include approximately 100 additional students from open enrollment. The district expects this trend of positive open enrollment to continue due to the diverse number of programs and good building maintenance (funded primarily with cash on hand) that the district provides.
