Country Data

Description: CountryData offers economic, financial and social data for over 140 countries, in most cases back to 1984. CountryData is also the only source for current and historical risk ratings for both the Political Risk Services and International Country Risk Guide rating system.

CountryData is designed to allow the user to cherry-pick only the data needed, BUT CountryData's DataWizard is also powerful enough to produce cross-country reports with thousands of data points.
