Summary: Campania (Region of) Mar 10

Description:
Abstract
The rating on the Region of Campania reflects tight supervision and support from the Italian state in managing health care issues, management's commitment to restructuring the health care sector, and the still-moderate debt level, which is in line with the rating category median. The rating is constrained by liquidity pressures at the health care unit (HCU) level, which have caused long payment delays to suppliers and the systematic seizing of certain HCUs' cash by judges. Management is trying to counteract these problems by encouraging HCUs to negotiate payment terms with its suppliers. However, Standard & Poor's Ratings Services considers it likely that the region will support short-term credit lines to the HCUs, to relieve the strain on liquidity. This will...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
