Summary: Campania (Region of) Mar 06

Description:

Abstract

The rating on the Region of Campania, in southern Italy, reflects the restored efficiency of the region's management and its strong commitment to restructuring the health care sector, as well as a debt level that will remain moderate over the next few years, despite an expected increase. The rating is, however, constrained by still below-average wealth indicators, a high health care deficit, poor financial flexibility, and a high stock of short-term commercial debt at the health care unit (HCU) level. Since 2000, Campania's management has worked further to improve efficiency in its core administrative functions. This drive has already borne fruit, as reflected in the effective use of EU funds and the cleaning up of the balance sheet. After the...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
