Summary: Carolina Power & Light Co d/b/a Progress Energy Carolinas Inc Sep 07

Description:
Abstract
The ratings on Carolina Power & Light Co. (d/b/a Progress Energy Carolinas Inc. (PEC)) reflect the consolidated credit profile of its parent, Progress Energy Inc. PEC is the company's largest subsidiary, contributing about 65% of consolidated operating income and providing electric service to 1.4 million customers in North Carolina and South Carolina, with the majority of revenues generated in North Carolina (80%-85% of PEC's revenues). The service territory has attractive demographics and has demonstrated above-average customer growth of more than 2% annually. Exposure to industrial customers has been declining gradually, especially among textile customers, making the company more dependent on residential and small commercial customers that tend to be more stable. The growth in the service territory has reduced PEC's...
