Summary: Calipatria Unified School District, California; General Obligation
Apr 14

Description:

Abstract
Standard & Poor's Ratings Services assigned its 'A+' long-term rating to Calipatria Unified School District, Calif.'s series 2014 general obligation (GO) refunding bonds. At the same time, Standard & Poor's affirmed its 'A+' long-term rating on the district's series 2013 GO refunding bonds and 'A+' underlying rating (SPUR) on the district's 2013A GO bonds. The outlook is stable. The rating reflects our view of the district's:
- Maintenance of a very strong available fund balance, though it has declined in recent years;
- Stable average daily attendance (ADA), which is the driver of state funding, its primary revenue source;
- Stable tax base growth, with assessed value (AV) increasing by an annual average of 6% in the past five years. The above...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
