China Merchants Holdings (International) Co. Ltd. Nov 06

Description:
Abstract
Leading port operator and investor in China Strategic port locations Strong investment returns Robust growth prospects Competitive business environment in certain markets Substantial capital expenditure and acquisition plans Lack of control over some core investments The rating on China Merchants Holdings (International) Co. Ltd. (CMHI) reflects the company's position as one of China's top port operators and investors, the strategic location of its ports, and good returns from its various investments. It also reflects the sector's robust growth potential due to China's rapid economic growth and strong trade activities. These strengths are offset by increasingly competitive market conditions in certain markets, the company's significant capital expenditure (capex) and acquisition plans over the medium term, and its lack of control over...
