Summary: Cargill Inc. Oct 01

Description: Abstract
The ratings on Cargill Inc. and related entities are supported by the firm's position as one of the world's leading agribusiness companies, with major market positions in agricultural processing and merchandising, industrial production, and financial services. The company's product and geographic diversity, as well as a vast communication and transportation network, helps optimize commodity movements and provides competitive advantages. There is also less exposure to any one segment of U.S. agriculture, or to any one international locale. However, recent results have been pressured by industry overcapacity in grain processing, volatile grain prices, the competitive market for steel, and weakness in the pork industry. Standard & Poor's views Cargill's financial services business as having a higher business risk profile than its...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, Sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
