Summary: Carrollton, TX; Tax Secured, General Obligation Apr 01

Description:
Abstract
The ‘AA’ rating on Carrollton, Texas' GO improvement bonds reflects: Very strong economy with access to the Dallas MSA, Growing and diversified tax base that serves as a distribution center, Very strong finances with conservative management practices and long-term planning, and A moderately high debt burden resulting from ongoing growth pressures. Bonds are secured by the city's full faith and credit. Carrollton (population 109,500) continues to experience rapid population growth due to its location in Dallas and Denton counties, and its availability of land. The local economy is well-diversified with growth in the service sector, telecommunications, and technology adding to the city's stable core of manufacturing and distribution operations in several industrial parks. Assessed value (AV) growth for fiscal year...
