Summary: Korea Expressway Corp. May 14

Description:

Abstract
Status as sole government-owned national expressway builder and operator Dominant market position in the domestic toll road sector Resilience of toll revenue to economic downturns High debt level as a result of continued, significant capital expenditures Ongoing financial support from the government The stable outlook on our rating on Korea Expressway Corp. (KEC), a Korea-based national expressway operator, reflects the stable outlook on our sovereign ratings on Korea (Republic of) and our expectation of a continued "extremely high" likelihood of extraordinary support from the government of Korea were KEC to suffer financial distress. Also underpinning the stable outlook is the level of headroom in the rating under our criteria for government-related entities (GREs; see “Rating Government-Related Entities: Methodology And Assumptions,”...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer’s creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor’s issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
