Summary: Hecla Mining Co. Jul 14

Description:
Abstract
Volatile precious metals prices Variable geologic conditions at the mines Relatively small and concentrated operations 2014 leverage expected to be about 3.3x, after adjustments, including accrued reclamation and closure costs Cash on hand supports adequate liquidity position Significant capital requirements, including mine exploration and development costs The stable outlook reflects our view that, over the next 12 months, liquidity, including approximately $208 million in cash at the end of the first quarter, will remain adequate. Our outlook also takes into consideration our expectation that a significant portion of the accrued reclamation and closing costs, which we include in our leverage calculation, will be paid off by the end of 2014. We expect that Hecla will maintain EBITDA interest coverage at...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer’s creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor’s issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
