Assessment of the Saudi Arabia Sukuk Market

Description: Executive summary

The Saudi Arabia financial market has withstood the global financial crises and the impact of the Arab spring. The evolution of this banking dominated market has led to the emergence of various sophisticated financial products in the market. The Sharia-compliant debt instruments, Sukus, are fast becoming the preferred source of funding in the region. Driven by large government and private sector expenses to develop the infrastructure in the region, the Sukuk segment is set to have a strong growth prospect in the coming years.
