Summary: Knoxville, TN Jun 97

Description:

Abstract
The rating on Knoxville, Tenn.’s bonds reflects: * A strong, diverse, and growing area economy; * Stable tax base; and * Strong financial performance. The rating is constrained by high debt and high debt service carrying charges. The city has a strong and diverse economy. In addition to a significant business and health services sector, Knoxville is one of the most important trade and business centers in the state. Per capita retail sales are a very strong 224.3% of state and 226.8% of national averages. The University of Tennessee provides further stability to the economy. Unemployment remains below state and national average at 4.43% due to a diverse employment base and tight job market. The tax base remains stable. A...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer’s creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor’s issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
