Summary: Hemet Unified School District, California; Appropriations; General Obligation Sep 14

Description: Abstract
Standard & Poor's Ratings Services affirmed its 'A' underlying rating (SPUR) on Hemet Unified School District, Calif.'s existing general obligation (GO) debt, its 'A-' SPUR on the district's series 2006 and series 2007 certificates of participation (COPs), and its 'A-' long-term rating on the district's series 2005 lease revenue bonds. The outlook is stable. The ratings reflect our view of the district's: Participation in the broad western Riverside County economy, coupled with access to the Los Angeles and San Diego areas; Reserve levels that are projected to be good for fiscal 2015; and Good Financial Management Assessment (FMA) score. In our opinion, partly offsetting these strengths are: Recent declines in district enrollment, which is the primary revenue driver under state...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
