Airfreight Forwarding Market in the EMEA Region 2014-2018

Description: About Airfreight Forwarding

Airfreight forwarders are third-party agencies that arrange shipments for business-to-business (B2B) customers from a manufacturer to a point of sale. They usually undertake operations involving the movement of light, expensive, and perishable goods that need emergency transportation. Having long-term contracts with the major airlines along with providing consolidation services enables them to secure cheaper freight rates.

The analysts forecast that the Airfreight Forwarding market in the EMEA region to grow at a CAGR of 2.73 percent by volume over the period 2013-2018.
