Informe Latinoamericano

Description: Informe Latinoamericano is the Spanish language version of Latin American Weekly Report, which provides a behind-the-scenes analysis of the week's developments along with not-to-be-missed forward-looking early-warning reports.

Edited by leading Latin American expert Jon Farmer, this timely and concise risk-oriented briefing analyses the key developments that could have crucial implications for your commercial, economic, political, security, or strategic interests in Latin America.

By distilling the week's developments from across the Latin American region into a single intelligence report, we are able to provide our clients with unrivalled, pan-regional analysis.

Whether you are a busy executive with important Latin American interests, a government official with responsibilities in Latin America, or a professional 'Latam-watcher', the Informe Latinoamericano is essential reading.

Informe Latinoamericano is trusted by governments, corporations, NGO’s, financial and academic institutions around the world to provide objective and insightful analysis on the region.

An announcement will be sent to you by email upon publication, containing links to our website where the report will be available HTML and Printer Friendly formats. The subscription period is one year.
