Latin American Regional Report: Andean Group

Description: The Latin American Regional Report: Andean Group provides an ideal complement to Latin American Weekly Report for those who require even more in-depth analysis on the regional developments affecting the Andean Group.

Whether you are a busy executive with key interests in the Andean Group, a government official with responsibilities in the Andean Group, or a professional ‘Latam-watcher’, Latin American Regional Report: Andean Group is essential reading.

Each report is published monthly to provide optimum perspective and insight on all crucial economic and political developments in the Andean Group.

An annual subscription includes twelve issues plus full online archive access to each Regional Report: Andean Group dating back to 1999, and pre-1999 reports via our search engine, to provide a powerful source of research.

The Latin American Regional Report: Andean Group is trusted by governments, corporations, NGO’s, financial and academic institutions around the world to provide objective and insightful analysis on the region.

An announcement will be sent to you by email upon publication, containing links to our website where the report will be available in PDF, HTML and Printer Friendly formats. The subscription period is one year.
