Set of Latin American Regional Reports

Description: Whether you are a busy executive with important Latin American interests, a government official with responsibilities in Latin America, or a professional ‘Latam-watcher’, Latin American Regional Reports are essential reading.

Our Set of Regional Reports comprises:

- Latin American Regional Report: Mexico & NAFTA
- Latin American Regional Report: Caribbean & Central America
- Latin American Regional Report: Andean Group
- Latin American Regional Report: Brazil & Southern Cone

Each of these reports is published monthly to provide optimum perspective and insight on all crucial economic and political developments in these regions.

An annual subscription to the Set of Regional Reports includes twelve issues of each region per year (published one region per week) for a total of total 48 reports per year. Also, clients have full online archive access to each Regional Report issue dating back to 1999, and pre-1999 reports via our search engine, which provides a powerful source of research. Clients may subscribe to any Regional Report individually should the full set not be required.

The Set of Latin American Regional Reports are trusted by governments, corporations, NGO’s, financial and academic institutions around the world to provide objective and insightful analysis.

An announcement will be sent to you by email upon publication, containing links to our website where the report will be available in PDF, HTML and Printer Friendly formats. The subscription period is one year.
