Global Reefer Shipping Market 2015-2019

Description: About Reefer Shipping

Reefer shipping refers to the transportation of perishable goods over sea through temperature-controlled reefer containers or specialized reefer ships. These reefer container and ships are equipped with in-built cooling and refrigeration units, which provide optimal temperature for different products. The reefer container comes in different sizes and specifications, thus meeting different demands as per the trade requirements.

The analysts forecast the Global Reefer Shipping market to grow at a CAGR of 2.98 percent over the period 2014-2019.
