Description:

Abstract

Standard & Poor's Ratings Services assigned its 'AAA' program rating and 'BBB+' issuer credit rating (ICR), and stable outlook, to Canton Independent School District, Texas' series 2007 unlimited-tax GO school building bonds and affirmed its 'AAA' program rating and 'BBB+' ICR, with a stable outlook, on the district's parity GO debt. The enhanced program rating reflects the Texas Permanent School Fund guarantee's security. The ICR reflects the district's: Shallow, agricultural-based economy; and Below-average income levels. These weaknesses are moderated by the district's: Steady property tax base growth; Strong financial position with sound state financial support; and Moderate overall debt burden on a market value basis, coupled with limited additional capital needs. An unlimited ad valorem tax on all taxable property...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
