ACE Group Mar 99

Description:
Abstract
The insurer financial strength ratings on Ace Ltd.'s (ACE) insurance and reinsurance subsidiaries reflect the companies' relationship to the parent company and the excellent operating performance and strong capitalization of the consolidated group. This is offset by an aggressive acquisition strategy, characterized by the speed at which new entities have been added, the substantial size of its targets, and the geographical spread of its reach. Very strong operating performance: ACE's operating performance has been excellent as measured by a three-year average return on revenue (ROR, 33%), return on equity (ROE, 17%), and return on assets (ROA, 8%). Strong, diversified business review: ACE's diversification program, launched in 1994, has led to a meaningful spread of business risk compared with the past...
