Summary: Canyon County School District No. 133 (Wilder), Idaho; General Obligation Nov 11

Description:
Abstract
Standard & Poor's Ratings Services affirmed its 'A' rating on Canyon County School District No. 133 (Wilder), Idaho's general obligation bonds. The outlook is stable. The rating reflects our view of: Recent declines in district enrollment, the primary revenue driver under the state funding formula; The district's high unemployment rate; and The district's already moderate carrying charges, which could rise to an elevated level if the district's operations continue to contract. The preceding credit weaknesses are offset in part by our view of: The district's strong wealth and adequate incomes; Historical increases in the district's available general fund balances, which are helping to mitigate state funding cuts; and Consistent voter support for property tax overrides for operations. The bonds are...
