Singapore Pharmaceuticals and Healthcare Report Q2 2015

Description: Singapore will remain a highly attractive manufacturing base for international pharmaceutical companies due to minimal levels of operational risks and the government's support for the industry. The pharmaceutical industry has been a key pillar of the country's economy and we believe its importance will continue to grow as traditional drivers such as electronic manufacturing slow.

Headline Expenditure Projections
- Pharmaceuticals: SGD1.041bn (USD822mn) in 2014 to SGD1.097bn (USD836mn) by 2015; +5.4% in local currency terms and +1.7% in USD terms.

- Healthcare: SGD19.31bn (USD15.24bn) in 2014 to SGD20.97bn (USD15.97bn) by 2015; +8.6% in local currency terms and +4.8% in USD terms.
