Food Container Glass in the CIS: Production, Market and Forecast (2nd edition)

Description: This report is the first edition of the market research of container glass for food industry in the CIS.

The purpose of the study - an analysis of the market of container glass for food industry in Russia and the CIS countries.

Object of research are narrow-necked glass containers (bottles) and wide-containers (jars for canning).

This work is a desk study. As information sources, we used data of Rosstat, Federal Customs Service of Russia, official statistics of rail transport JSC "Russian Railways"; Republic of Kazakhstan Agency on Statistics, GCS Ukraine and other CIS-STAT, used data base UNdata, sectoral and regional press, annual and quarterly reports of companies, as well as websites of manufacturers of glass containers.

Geography Research: Russian Federation, Ukraine - a comprehensive detailed analysis of the market; Belarus, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Moldova, Azerbaijan, Armenia, Georgia, - a retrospective analysis of the overall market.

In the first chapter of the report describes the technology of production of container glass.

The second chapter presents data on reserves and deposits of basic raw materials for the production of container glass in the CIS.

The third chapter is devoted to the production of container glass for food industry in CIS countries. This section provides statistics of the production in the 2000-2013 biennium. (in Russia - including the first 9 months of 2014), the regional structure of production, and also presents data on volumes of bottles and cans of large enterprises.

The fourth chapter analyzes foreign trade operations in container glass for food industry in the Russian Federation (2000-2014) And Ukraine (in 2004-2013) As well as in other CIS countries (2005-2013). The data on exports and imports of the products in bulk and in money terms, regional pattern of export and import bottles and jars, data on volumes and directions of supplies of the main exporters and importers.

The fifth chapter is devoted to the analysis of price conjuncture of Russian market of glass. In this section, the dynamics of change in prices for container glass for food industry on the domestic market in recent years, provides an overview of export-import prices.

The sixth chapter of the report devoted to the consumption of container glass for food industry, the balance of the production-consumption of these products in Russia, Ukraine and other CIS countries. This section also shows the sectoral and regional structure of consumption of container glass in Russia.

In the seventh chapter of the report presents forecast of development of the market of container glass for food industry in Russia up to 2020, taking into account the current state and forecast of the major consuming industries.

Appendix presents contact information on the main producers of container glass for food industry in the CIS.

Target audience research:
- Container glass market participants - producers, consumers, traders;
- Potential investors.

The proposed study claims to be the reference for marketing services and professionals to make management decisions, working in the market of container glass.

Contents:

1. Technology of production of glass and equipment used
2. State of the raw material base for the production of glass in the CIS for 2014
   2.1. Quartz sand
   2.2. Carbonate resources
      2.2.1. Dolomite
      2.2.2. Chalk
      2.2.3. Limestone and lime
   2.3. Feldspar
   2.4. Soda ash
   2.5. Sodium Sulfate
3. Production of container glass for food industry in the CIS
   3.1. Production of container glass for food industry in Russia in 1997-2014
      3.1.1. Dynamics of production of container glass for food industry in Russia
      3.1.2. The main enterprise-producers of container glass in Russia; their power and current status.
         Group "Ruscam"
         Group of companies "CSY and K"
         GC "Rus-Glass"
         Glass Company "Rasco"
         Concern Saint Gobain
         JSC "Firm" Actis (Rostov region).
         JSC "Svet" (Udmurtia)
         LLC "Ruzaevsky Glassworks" (Rep. Of Mordovia)
         LLC "Red Echo" (Vladimir region).
         LLC "Steklozavody" ("Aleksinskoye Glass") (Tula)
         JSC "Novosibirsk plant" Ekran (Novosibir region).
         JSC "Sitall" (Smolensk region).
   3.2. Production of container glass for food industry in Ukraine in 2004-2013
      3.2.1. Dynamics of production of container glass for food industry in Ukraine
      3.2.2. The main enterprise-producers of container glass in the Ukraine; their power and current status.
         JSC "Gostomelsky Glassworks" Vetropak (Kiev region).
         LLC "Volnogorsk glass" (Dnipropetrovsk region).
         LLC "Consumers-Sklo-Zorya" (Rivne region).
         JSC "Rokytnivskyi Glassworks" (Rivne region).
         LLC "Kostopil Glassware Factory" (Rivne region).
         LLC "Merefa Glass Company" (Kharkiv region).
   3.3. Production of container glass for food industry in other CIS countries in 2005-2013
      3.3.1. Byelorussia
      3.3.2. Moldavia
      3.3.3. Uzbekistan
      3.3.4. Kazakhstan
4. Foreign trade in container glass for food industry in the CIS
   4.1. Foreign trade in container glass in Russia in 2000-2014
      4.1.1. Exports of container glass in Russia
      4.1.2. Imports of container glass in Russia
   4.2. Foreign trade in container glass in Ukraine in 2004-2013
      4.2.1. Exports of container glass of Ukraine
      4.2.2. Imports of container glass in Ukraine
   4.3. Foreign trade in container glass other CIS countries in 2005-2013
5. Prices for container glass in Russia in 2000-2014
5.1. Domestic prices for container glass for food industry in Russia
5.2. Analysis of export-import prices on container glass for food industry in Russia

6. The consumption of container glass in CIS
6.1. The consumption of container glass for food industry in Russia in 2000-2014
6.1.1. Supply-demand balance of container glass in Russia
6.1.2. Branch and Regional structure of consumption of container glass for food industry in Russia
6.2. The consumption of container glass for food industry in Ukraine in 2004-2013
6.3. The consumption of container glass for food industry in other CIS countries in 2004-2013

7. Forecast of production and consumption of container glass for food industry until 2020
7.1. Present status and forecast of development of end-uses
7.2. Market forecast of container glass for food industry in Russia

Appendix. Addresses and phone numbers of company-producers of container glass for food industry
