Yearbook Online Premium Service 2014

Description: The Yearbook of the European Audiovisual Observatory is one of the best and most comprehensive data sources on television, cinema, video and the increasingly important on-demand audiovisual services in Europe.

It is based on a huge variety of the best data and information sources available and covers 39 European States.

The Yearbook Online Premium Service is the European Audiovisual Observatory's answer to your increasing demand for readily available electronic statistical data at its earliest stage.

You access the data online in Excel format (see technical access-details after the content list).
