Global Smart Water Meter Market 2015-2019

Description: About smart water meters

Smart water meters are similar to conventional mechanical water meters except that they are connected to a data logger for continuous monitoring of water consumption. Smart water meters provide real-time information or sufficient data points that allows consumers to understand and monitor water consumption. They also help utilities manage the water networks efficiently and provide better customer service as peak periods of water usage can be accurately determined by the data provided by smart water meters. Pulses are created in the smart water meter by the water consumption event; for instance, the use of a washing machine is logged by the data logger in a pre-defined frequency. Several user-defined parameters such as flow rate, time, and volume are used to disaggregate the information provided by these pulses and assign them to different water use events.

The analysts forecast the global smart water meter market to grow at a CAGR of 14.68 percent over the period 2014-2019.
