Brazil Sanitary Ware Market Forecast & Opportunities, 2020

Description: According to "Brazil Sanitary Ware Market Forecast & Opportunities, 2020", the sanitary ware market in Brazil is projected to grow at a CAGR of over 7% during 2015-20. The major end user segments for sanitary wares in Brazil are residential, commercial and institutional sectors. Segment wise, water closets & bidets is the most dominant segment in the country. Other factors that are significantly contributing towards boosting the demand for sanitary ware include ongoing preparation for 2016 Summer Olympics, increasing hygiene consciousness and growing consumer inclination towards lifestyle products. Few of the leading players currently operating in the country's sanitary ware market include Roca Brasil, Duratex, Hervy, ICASA and Fiori.

Brazil is emerging as a large sanitary ware market on account of growing real estate projects, rising disposable income and increasing urbanization. In addition to this, some of the measures taken by the Brazilian government such as credit expansion for loans has made an indirect positive impact on the sanitary ware market. Demand for sanitary ware, especially for water closets and bidets, is rising on account of rising awareness about hygiene, increasing construction activities and growing middle class population in Brazil. It has been observed that the demand for high end sanitary ware products among elite class population is also increasing at a significant pace in the country, particularly for bathtubs and bidets. The real estate sector in Brazil, which is the backbone of sanitary ware market, has been witnessing an upsurge in investments, thereby portraying a positive outlook for the country's sanitary ware market.
