cPDM Market in the UK 2015-2019

Description: About cPDM

Collaborative product definition management (cPDM) software solution is a strategic business approach involving the application of a consistent set of solutions that collaboratively provide effective and efficient methods to manage the functions of product lifecycle management (PLM). They help in effective product data management, collaborative product visualization, collaborative product commerce, effective integration of cPDM with enterprise applications, supplier relationship management (SRM), and streamlining of manufacturing and production processes. cPDM helps enterprises market innovative products more effectively in the evolving e-business web-enabled environment. These software solutions are adopted by the automotive, electronics, industrial machinery, aerospace and defense, packaged goods, and petrochemical industries.

The analysts forecast the cPDM market in the UK to grow at a CAGR of 10.28% over the period 2014-2019.
