Summary: Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce Jun 15

Description: Abstract

Business portfolio anchored by stable domestic banking franchise Consistent earnings and capital generation Conservative risk appetite Higher exposure to domestic unsecured consumer lending than some peers Further investment required to continue to expand market position Limited franchise geographic diversity relative to industry leaders Fairly high dependence on wholesale funding, though not dissimilar to Canadian peers Standard & Poor's Ratings Services' outlook on Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (CIBC) is negative, the same as the other five large Canadian banks, reflecting our review of notching for extraordinary government support in light of the future implementation of the bail-in policy framework in Canada. Depending on the features of the policy that will be introduced, and consequential actions by CIBC, uplift based on...

Standard and Poors RatingsXpress Credit Research provides in-depth coverage of international corporates, financial institutions, insurance companies, utilities, sovereigns and structured finance programs. RatingsXpress Credit Research lets users determine the credit rating of holdings and identify key factors underlying an issuer's creditworthiness, distinguishes the different risk exposures for new and existing deals, and provides an understanding of how their analysts interpret key regulatory, political and environmental events and their economic impact.

This product consists of a Summary Analysis: Bi-annual (at least). An abbreviated analysis containing Standard & Poor's issuer credit ratings as of the time the article was published. The analysis includes a rating rationale - the basis on which the rating was assigned - and an outlook section if the issuer is not on CreditWatch. Financial statistics are not included.
